MASS MEETING ON APRIL 11

New Form of Government Will be Discussed Taxpayers are Invited

COMMITTEE NAMED

Speakers Will Tell Citizens of Benefit to be Derived From Change to City Management Plan.

Pursuant to resolution of the Board of irectors of the Chamber of Commerce. Carroll Pierce, president of the above organization, appointed a committee to arrange for a mass meeting of the citizens and tax payers of Alexandria, to consider the question of adopting a more efficient form of government for Alexandria.

While the hamber of Commerce has made an exhaustive study of the subject, and compiled considerable data on the subject, it was realized from the start that the matter was one affecting the vital interest of every voter and tax payer of the city of Alexandria, and it was a matter that should be handled by the citizens themselves, and not through the agency of the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber of Commerce, therefore decided to call a meeting of the voters and tax payers of Alexandria, and submit to them what information they had secured on this subject, and let them decide what steps they desired to take in regard to the future administration of their affairs.

Carroll Pierce, president of the Chamber of Commerce, appointed a committee, which committee is composed of the following citizens of Alexandria, W. A. Smoot, Harry Hammond, R. L. Payne, Howard W. Smith, Dr. W. M. Smith, Claude W. Fletcher, W. H. Sweeney, K. W. Ogden, John T. Harrison, P. F. Gorman, Jas. R. Caton, Robt. S. Jones to arrange for a meeting of the citizens and tax payers, and to submit to them what data the Chamber of Commerce had compiled on the subject, and to invite speakers to address this meeting, i speakers to address this meeting, in regard to what the business administration of city affairs has accomplished in the cities of other states and nations.

The committee met last night, an delected James R. Caton chairman of the committee, and after a full discussion of the matter, April 11th was decided upon, as the date to call a mass meeting of the citizens.

A committe composed of K. W. Ogden, Harry Hammond, and Dr. W. M. Smith, was appointed, to give proper publicity to the meeting, and to arrange for a suitable speakers to address same. The next meeting of the committee, will be held at 4:30 o'clock, Monday, at which time reports will be received from the committee.

At the mass meeting to be held all phases of the matter, will be discussed, and it is hoped that every interested citizen and tax payer, will make it a point to be present at this meeting, so as to be able to form their own opinion as to what further steps should be taken in the matter.

WILSON HAS COLD

Executive Has Been Confined to His Bed Since Thursday.

Paris, April 5.—"There is nothing more to be said than that President Wilson is suffering from a severe cold," was the only statement elicited late this evening from Admiral Cary Grayson, the President's physician. Mr. Wilson has been confined to his bed since Thursday. The degree of his fever was not revealed.

It was learned, however, that his cold is acrmpanied by a distinctly hacking cough.

"Will there be any necessity for issuing daily bulletins?" Dr. Grayson was asked.

"Probably not," was the answer.

WOUNDED BY DRUGGIST

R. H. Harris Shot Twice During Controversy in Petersburg Store.

Petersburg, Va., April 5.—R. H. Harris was shot twice last night by Lester B. Simmons during a dispute, which took place in the store of Simmons Brothers, known as the "Chesterfield Fountain," formerly the lobby of the Hotel Chesterfield, on North Sycamore street. The shooting occurred about 8:30 o'clock, o'clock, and is said to have been the result of Harris failing to leave the store after being ordered by Simmons, who was employed by his brother as a clerk.

Witnesses stated that Harris had been drinking and became involved in a dispute with a customer in the store, and both had drawn knives, but were prevented by friends from having a difficulty. Harris left the store, but returned immediately and was again requested by Simmons to leave the building. Harris, it is said, became infuriated and commenced to abuse Simmons, who went to the telephone to phone for the police.

Harris continued his alleged abuse of Simmons, and Simmons left the phone, and walking up to Harris told him that he did not fear him and that he must leave the store. At this point the shooting commenced, Simmons shooting four times. One of the bullets struck Harris in the abdomen, another hit him in the neck and two bullets missed.

Harris wns rushed to the hospital, and his wound in the abdomen is regarded as a serious, if not a fatal one.

ALLIED TROOPS IN PERIL

More American Troops Will be Sent To Northern Russia.

More American troops may be sent to Northern Russia if reports from London that the allied forces on both fronts face impending disaster are correct.

The decision to send American reinforcements, it was learned at the War Department yesterday, would be made by the Supreme War Council. Secretary of War Baker said the department had no information on the latest phase of the military situation in the north, as portrayed in the British press.

He declared the only troops we have sent to Russia, in addition to the forces already there, are a detachment of engineers. Furthermore, in accordance with the President's decision, which was transmitted by the Secretary of War to the chairmen of the Senate and House Military affairs committees, all American forces in Russia will be withdrawn in the spring as soon as navigation permits.

ATLANTIC CITY AIR PORT

Planes Clearing for Resort Must Be Registered, Just As Ships Are.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 5.—This resort is likely to achieve the honor of being designated as first "air port" in the world. Plans for the port were announced yesterday by Augustus Post, secretary of the Aerial League of America. The air port, according to Mr. Post, is to be operated on the same lines as a seaport.

"Aircraft starting from this port" he said, "are to be registered under the rules of the aircraft inspection service of the Department of Commerce, having clearance papers, just as ships of the sea have.

"The new port will also supply a flying field for the Aero Club of America, the Aerial League of America and the Atlantic City Aero Club.

"In addition, it will serve as an aerial mail station and aerial police station for Atlantic City.

"It will have facilities for trans-Atlantic airships, whether of seaplane, airplane or dirigible balloon type."

HURRIED THE END

"Those socks I knitted for you—did you wear 'em?"

"Yes, I wore 'em, and they made me all the more determined to get the war over in a hurry."—Judge.

FIGHT WITH BOLSHEVIKI

Alarming Facts as to Vicious Plots and Propaganda Revealed by Raid at Wilkes-Barre

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 5.—Arrest of 11 alleged leaders of radical organizations that represent the spread of the Bolshevik propaganda in the anthracite coal fields followed a gun duel between the radicals and police of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Coal Company late Wednesday night. Arraigned before Magistrate Brown today the arrested men revealed these alarming facts.

The Luzerne county branch of "a secret society for the uplift of the poor" has 75 propagandists. It maintains at Mocanaqua a private school for boys over the age of 14 years, offering free instruction on civil government. House-to-house canvasses are being made in the districts where foreign-born residents make their homes. Sentiment is directed to a coal strike to demand the six-hour day five day week and dollar an hour wage.

The gun duel that ended in the arrest of 11 alleged agitators was planned in advance, the radicals intending to use whatever armed force is necessary to uphold their principles.

County Detective William Moyles aiding Chief of Police Lawrence Ryan and a force of railrad operatives, was called to Cocanaqua last evening to deputize citizens for relief of a work train that was reported "held up" and detained under an armed guard. Arriving at the scene, Moyles formed a posse and descended upon the train discovering a group of employees of the West End Coal Co., helpless prisoners of a band of armed men.

CHILD CONDEMNS FATHER

Tells Coroner's Jury She Saw Him Shoot Her Mother to Death

Wilmington, Del., April 5.—The coroner's jury Wednesday held William McCoy for the Grand Jury for killing his wife last Monday at their home. No. 810 West Seventh street. The 9-year-old daughter of the couple, Margaret, probably will be the State's chief witness against McCoy. At the inquest the little girl told her story in a vivid manner. She said that she was not at school on the afternoon of the shooting, as she had been ill. When her father came home from work her mother prepared his dinner. A short time later, according to the child, her father and mother went to the second floor, while she stayed on the first floor. Then she said she knew they were quarreling because they "hollered" at each other.

In a short time, she said, her father came to the room next to the parlor on the first floor where she was sitting and took a shotgun from a closet. Her mother was on the way down stairs, said Margaret, and was on the third step from the bottom when her father stepped to the hall and, putting the gun to his shoulder, fired and her mother fell to the floor. Margaret said she saw the whole prcoeeding through the door leading into the second room on the first floor.

Attorney J. Frank Ball, who represents the accused man, would not permit him to make any statement and McCoy sat through the inquest handcuffed, and conversed with his younger son.

PRIMARY FIXED FOR APRIL 22

R. Walton Moore and H. Earlton Hanes Qualify for Congressional Honors

BOTH PUT UP $1,000

Friends of Mr. Moore Predict Easy Victory—General Election May 27 When Republican Candidate will run

The time limit for candidates desiring to enter the Democratic primary to be held April 22 to nominate a candidate for Congress from this district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Representative Charles C. Carlin to pay their pro rata of the expenses incident to the primary expired today and the two candidates who paid their $1,000 each to Gardner L. Boothe, district chairman, are R. Walton Moore, attorney of Fairfax county, and H. Earlton Hanes, an attorney of Herndon, Fairfax county.

It was at first thought that there would be no need for a primary, as it was generally believed that R. Walton Moore would be without opposition. However, Mr. Hanes is in the ace and a primary will be held.

Friends of Mr. Moore predict that he will have a walk over in the coming primary.

The general election will be held May 27 when the Republicans will have a candidate in the field.

Their candidate will be nominated at a convention which will be held in this city April 14.

CASE OF HENRY WATTERSON.

An exchange says it is not surprising that Henry Watterson has left his job as editor emeritus of the Courier-Journal. Watterson was never intended by nature to be an emeritus. His mental forces refused to retire in the face of his associates' support of the Wilson draft of the treaty. The old soldier of the pen would not stand by and have his principles mustered out. He is like Josiah Quincy, who, after he had passed 90, "came forward," as Lowell said, "to brace his townsmen with a courage and warm them with a fire yonnger than their own." So Colonel Watterson resigns from the place of editor emeritus. In other words, he retires from retirement."

Watterson is now in the sere and yellow leaf, He is one of the brightest journalists in the country, and has long enjoyed this reputation. But, it seems, he failed to acquire one of the most important lessons of the profession while young, that is the realization of the fact that a writer for a newspaper is, after all, but the amanuensis of others. He may have his private opinions, but, if employed by others, he is supposed to write upon lines often marked out by them. In plain words, he is as a lawyer ready to plead cases from the standpoint of those who procure his services. Watterson, now burdened with the weight of years, is confronted by this lesson.

After having spent half a century on one paper, it is difficult to sever relations. The paper becomes part and parcel of one's existence. This is realized by others who have passed the bulk of their lives in one sanctum.

The late Horace Greeley was for many years the pulse of the New York Tribune. During his exhausting campaign in 1872 when he endeavored to obtain the goal of his ambition—the Presidential chair—his wife sickened and died. When it became known that Grant had been re-elected, the mind of the great journalist was seen to stagger. While in this condition it is said he wrote an article for the Tribune which the managing editor, Whitelaw Reid, for some good reason, "laid on the table." Greeley was stung, and his condition grew rapidly worse until death closed the scene in a private sanitarium.

HUSBAND TELLS HIS STORY

He did the washing and ironing, he says; he did the cooking of the breakfasts for the children; he attended to their nursing bottles at night—and, for all this, Elmer B. Carpenter, an accountant, employed at the War Department in Washington, told the District Supreme Court yesterday that his wife, Agnes B. Carpenter, treated him cruelly and, worse yet, occasionally assaulted him. Carpenter filed suit for a limited divorce.

A few weeks ago an excited wife appeared at the station house in Alexandria and asked for a warrant for the arrest of her husband against whom she urged several charges. When the officer went to the house for the purpose of citing the man to court he found him with his arms in a tub engaged in washing the garments worn by members of the family. He left the tub and accompanied the officer to the Police Court. After his wife had stated her case, the man was asked if he had anything to say in his defense when he informed the court that the charges against him were baseless, and that he virually performed all the work incidental to housekeeping. He said he cooked the meals, did all the washing, split all the kindlings, and gave his wife all the money he earned. The charges against him were dismissed, but the complainant was not satisfied with the judgment of the court, and announced her purpose to ask Governor Westmoreland Davis to take a hand in the case. His excellency recently came to this city in an automobile and stopped at the station house where he shook hands with the Police Justice and several officers who were present at the time. He said in visiting cities in Virginia he always endeavored to make friends with the police justice first as his auto might get him in trouble. Should he come again the case referred to above could be reopened and the Governor invited to take a seat on the "wool sack."

CRUTCHFIELD'S RULINGS

Mutiny threatened in the Police Court of Richmond Wednesday when Justice John Crutchfield refused to recess long enough for witnesses and lawyers to go to lunch and held the court in order for a session lasting over eight hours. Court was called at 10 o'clock in the morning and held without a break until all the cases on the docket were disposed of at 4:35 o'clock in the afternoon. The Justice replied to the grumblings of the assembly that as he was undoubtedly the oldest man there they could stand it as long as he could. Grumblers were compelled to tighten their belts and grin and bear it.

The Richmond Police Justice is a terror to evil doers.

On Wednesday he imposed a fine of $250 and costs upon a man who had permitted raffling on his premises. The Alexandria city law makes the penalty $20. A negro was fined $100 and costs for his future good behavior. A white man was fined $50 and costs for driving while under the influence of liquor, and another man was assessed $25 for reckless driving. One individual who had exceeded the speed limit while operating a car paid $25 for his fun.

THE WHEELS OF JUSTICE

One of Dickens's best books is thought by many to be "Bleak House." The author's object in writing this book was to expose the unnecessary delays of English chancery courts. The delays in modern criminal courts are often subjects of comment, and the assertion oft repeated that certain persons held for shedding human blood are liable to die in prison of old age is to the point.

The object in keeping criminals from trial as long as possible, is, of course, to enable the public to cease talking or thinking about the case. The defense, months after a murder, has a decided advantage.

The Baltimore News in commenting upon present conditions says "Justice does not always travel with a leaden heel. There would be far less disposition to quarrel with dispensation of the law if all murder trials moved with the decorum and the expedition, while meeting what appears to the public, we are certain, as being the ends of justice, that were exhibited in the trials of Carlyle P. Webster and the Japanese, Dr. Norbu Ishida. In the latter case murder was committed on December 21. Trial began on March 17. A verdict of lands.remeet- g rrm rom dom o0 guilty in the first degree was found on March 20. There was a little more delay in the case of Webster. His crime was discovered on October 29. Trial began March 27 and a verdict of murder in the first degree was brought in on April 2, Sunday intervening.

"In both cases the accused elected trial before judges in preference to a jury. Both were of that sensational nature that stirs interest. There were in both features that could have been used, and frequently are used, to confuse juries, pile up costs, prolong trials, dragging them out in the lawyer's hope of finding basis for appeal for reversal of judgment if it goes against his client, until the public all but loses confidence in the administration of justice.

"Punishment loses much of its effect as a deterrent against crime when it comes so long after the offense that the details are forgotten. The swift process of the law in these two cases in contradistinction to the inevitable procrastination of similar cases when tried before a jury, with the all too frequent miscarriage of justice, is a marked illustration of how courts can function, at the same time throwing around the defendant every proper safeguard."

Count Karolyi, former Hungarian premier, was reported yesterday to be in Vienna, conducting active Bolshevist propaganda. He is said to be endeavoring to induce the Socialists to form an alliance with the Hungarian nad Russian Soviets. Dispatches from Budapest report intensification of the revolutionary movement there. Most of the politicians of the old regime are said to have fled, fearing arrest. Further radicalization of the government is expected. The Hungarian government apparently is conducting a systematic campaign to weld Hungary, Russia, Austria and Bavaria together in a strong alliance.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tortures and discomforts of weak, lame and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nausea, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.
Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the loins and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day.
GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.

RICHMOND—"WM. FARNUM"

William Farnum, the famous actor of stage and screen, will be shown at the Richmond tonight. in the photoplay, ,"The Man Hunter."

It is hardly necessary to say that this is a big dramatic, ,thrilling picture, because Wm. Farnum is noted for the excellent plays he has put on the screen. He does not make "just pictures" for the sake of turning out so many each year. He must have a good story before he begins; and in this he has been highly successful. Witness his "Tale of Two Cities," his "Les Miserables," both classics of the classics; and remember his "When a Man Sees Red," "Riders of the Purple Sage," and "The Rainbow Trail."

In "The Man Hunter," Mr. Farnum really gives several different character studies of value. He gives you a care-free man of wealth in London; the prisoner who serves an unjust term; the low character that mingles with pickpockets and fakirs, the powerful, strong-minded man who takes control of a ship in time of danger, when death threatens; and the man from whose every pore oozes hatred and a desire for revenge against the false friend who made him penniless.

MATINEE AND NIGHT MONDAY

A fascinating story of a breezy Western girl who, after a long struggle, captivates the hearts of her husband's eclusive and very wealthy family who at first had refused to receive her, is "Love Me," the latest Dorothy Dalton- Paramount picture, now showing at the Grand Theatre. Always winsome, Miss Dalton is more than ever adorable in her new role and some of the gowns she wears, as well as those of her socially correct "in-laws" cause grasps of pleasure from the feminine contingent of the audiences. Also Antonis Moreno in The Iron Test.

INGOMAR— BILLY RHODES

At the Ingomar tonight the winsome screen star, Billy Rhodes will be seen in her latest comedy success "Hoop La!" a clean wholesome and enjoyable feature.

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work.

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardi. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, fr I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wondens for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benfit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

MADE BY SCIENCE TO WEAR WELL

"It looks as if the shoes with Neolin Soles I am using would last another six months. I have worn them two years," says Clarence J. Bloenker, of St. Louis, Missouri.

This is extraordinary wear even for Neolin Soles. But because they are made by Science to be especially tough and durable, all Neolin Soles wear a long time. And shoes soled with them are a real economy.

Buy Neolin-soled shoes for yourself and for the whole family. You can get them in many styles—at prices that are no higher than on shoes that give only ordinary wear. Have your old shoes re-bottomed with Neolin Soles, too.

These soles are noted for their comfort and waterproofness, also. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio, who make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear all other heels.

Rub Musterole on Forehead and Temples

A headache remedy without the dangers of "headache medicine." Relieves headache and that miserable feeling from colds or congestion. And it acts at once! Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Used only externally, and in no way can it affect stomach and heart, as some internal medicines do.

Excellent for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, all pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).
